The presenters:

Mary Anne Hanley, PhD, RN, SGAHN, QTTT

Mary Anne Hanley has been a student of Dee Krieger and Dora Kunz since 1984. She has been practicing, teaching, and studying about TT for more than 4 decades. Over the past 14 years she has served on the board of Therapeutic Touch Dialogues, Inc., Therapeutic Touch International Association. She has facilitated a sustained community dialogue with Therapeutic Touch experts to develop, implement, and evaluate a practice-based Theory of Healing (Hanley, Coppa, & Shields, 2017).

Recently, officially retired, Mary Anne contributes to TT courses and the ongoing support of the associations that promote the use of TT.

Mary Lou Trinkwon, M.Ed., TTRT

Mary Lou Trinkwon began her TT journey in 2015. She has been involved in TTNC committee work and is currently sitting on a TTIA Committee in a review of curriculum guidelines. Since 2019 she has actively participated in BCTTNS and is currently the Credentialing Chair. Mary Lou helped to support the Indralaya teaching team in pivoting to Zoom and has been teaching there since then. She has been a participant in the Montana Dialogues since 2019, and in 2023/24 developed and facilitated part of the programming. She is an active Hospice volunteer and has taught TT to other volunteers and provides mentorship support there. She has facilitated the Vancouver Practice Group since 2018.
